Tom Johnson –

In the past month I attended the GTAC Disability Meet. The advertisement from Indiana Swimming was prominently placed in the heat sheet. The 3 Indiana athletes in attendance all fared well.

I also attended the Irish Aquatics May Classic. This meet was full and offered some good competition. There were a number of Illinois teams in attendance.

Finally, I attended the Open Water National Championships in Long Beach California. This was a very valuable experience for the 3 athletes we had competing. There was one other Indiana athlete who participated. For our athletes who have been pretty successful in state and zone level open water competition, this was an eye opening experience. The level of competition was strong, with lots of depth. In order to compete a swimmer must be prepared to basically sprint through the first turn, or be left far behind.
